Memo

Proposal to remove the Gowrepatheswara temple in Konanur to the Western Extension in the Town of Ellysore.

I visited Konanur this day with a view to ascertain the feelings of the local residents on the subject of removing the temple.

2. There are no Brahmins in the village. But all the ryots, among whom were a few aged men, appeared before me and unanimously represented that the temple in question was the only Siva temple for 15 or 20 miles around, and that its removal from the village would cause them great hardship.

3. I would not recommend the removal of the temple from Konanur as the ryots strongly object to the proposal.
